Splendid Display of Live Stock, Implements, Fowls, Etc.

THE OPENING DAY.

THE CATTLE DISPLAY

is very large and contains many choice pure-bred animals. The Holstein-Friesian herd of Mr. B. N. L. Davies, of Mount Vernon, W. T., attracts a large share of attention, as much by their superiority as from the fact that the breed is a comparatively new one on the coast. It comprises nine animals, at the head of which is the bull "Byron," which is five years old and weighs 2300 pounds. The Holstein are a favorite breed in the east, where they have been steadily growing in popularity for the past ten years. Their milking capacity is enormous, averaging fifty pounds per day during the grass season. Mr. Davies' herd at Mount Vernon contains 47 animals, the largest of the kind on the northwest coast. The only other Holstein shown is own by Mr. H. Chaffey. Dr. Tolmie, an enthusiastic breeder of Durhams, comes to the front with six thoroughbreds and eight grades. He is the largest exhibitor in this class. The 4-year old bull "Reuben Butler," weighing 2100 pounds, is a majestic animal. Mr. S. Sandover shows a short horn bull and a three year old heifer, and Mr. J. Shopland, a yearling of the same class, recently imported from the east. His Worship Mayor Fell, and ex-Mayor Dalby are also exhibitors of Durham cows, and both of them are beauties. Next in order of merit are the Jerseys, famous as milkers and with many the most popular for dairy purposes. Capt. Revely, Edgar Marvin, H. Chaffey and W. Lewis, of Comox, each show a Jersey bull, and W. McKeon, a splendid Jersey Cow, brought only a few months ago from California. Grade stock is plentiful and generally of an improved strain. Herds, consisting of 5 cows and a bull, are shown by Dr. Tolmie, Henry King, and Mr. Smith, while Alex. Jack, Hon. J. W. Trutch, and others are smaller exhibitors in the same class. The increase in this department is more marked than in the others, and reflects much credit on the exhibitors. The awards of the judges will be found in the prize list which will be published in our next issue.

HORSES.

The "noble animal" was represented by many splendid specimens, the total entries aggregating between forty and fifty. Mr. Davies, of Mount Vernon, exhibits two stallions and a mare, of the English Shire breed, of which the famous Clyde is an offshoot. They are magnificent animals, strong, muscular and compact in shape and size. The four-year-old stallion is a beautiful brown color, and weighs 1,900 pounds; the mare "Gold Leaf," 2 years old turns the scales at 1,450 pounds. Mr. C. Purver's well known "Inauguration," J. Parker's "Johnny Knox," and the stallions owned by C. McCorkick, Thomas Dodd, W. Turgoose, W. White and others, were the most conspicuous animals in the ring, and were much admired by horsemen. The two-year-old class contained several promising colts, the roadsters of Captain Urquhart, A. Jack and P. Elford, standing an excellent chance of sweeping the prizes. A. G. Ryan exhibited a handsome gray as a driver, a draught horse and a three-year-old gelding. Mr. J. C. Bryant's two-year-old, a surprisingly large animal and teams and mares and colts shown by Messrs. W. Turgoose, George Stelly, Jas. Lascelles, H. King and W. John completed a very creditable collection of horses. Next to cattle, the exhibition of horses, in respect to number and excellence, shows a gratifying improvement, and competent judges declared that it was the best they had seen in many years.

POULTRY.

In "birds of utility" Mrs. G. R. Perrin, of Victoria, takes the cake and the honors. Her exhibit comprises buff cochins, partridge cochins, white and black cochins, Wyandottes, Plymouth Rocks, dark and light brahmas, black red, pile and duns, pit game, browns and white leghorns, black crested, white polish, silver spangled polands, Spanish, Longshangs, game bantams, fan tail pigeons, geese, ducks, canaries and rabbits. The collection numbers 135 birds, and is the best ever shown by one exhibitor at any exhibition on the north Pacific coast. Mr. John Partridge shows a nice pen of partridge cochin chickens. Lady Douglas, and Messrs. Dean, Renouf and Smith are also exhibitors in this class. Two years ago, the total exhibit of fowl numbered about fifty; this year there are fully four times that number, which is largely due, there is little doubt, to the liberal encouragement given by Mr. Perrin during the last three years, in offering valuable special prizes for the best breeds.

SHEEP

are largely represented, the stall accommodation having been found too limited. Mr. J. S. Shopland has, perhaps, the largest display, showing seven Leicesters, twelve South Downs, rams, ewes and lambs. This gentleman's efforts to encourage the breeding of pure bred sheep is, we were glad to learn, meeting with financial success. Dr. Tolmie's flock of Leicesters also appears to advantage, as also does that of Mr. Harry King. Mr. J. D. Bryant shows a Cotswold ram, and ex-Mayor Dalby and R. Porter are among the largest exhibitors.

IN PIGS

there is fair competition. S. Sandover and H. Chaffee, in Poland Chinas, and J. Shopland in Berkshires, being the principal competitors.

CARRIAGES AND IMPLEMENTS.

On the east side of the building Messrs. J. Meston and C. Ball exhibit carriages, etc., made by themselves. The vehicles consist of buggies, phaetons, (in the hall) wagons, carts, cutters, plows and harrows and they all appear to be strong and durable as they are unquestionably faultless and handsome in construction.

Nicholles & Renouf cover a piece of ground about the size of a city lot, with all kinds of agricultural implements. The assortment is complete, and embraces every implement used on a farm, from a steam threshing machine or the latest improved self-binder to the plebian reaping hook or the useful hoe. They are the principal, and in fact about the only exhibitors in this line.

INSIDE OF THE HALL

the display surpasses, in several important features, anything hitherto seen in Victoria, notably the exhibit of fruit, which might however be better classified. Pendray's exhibit of soaps, the art department, and manufactures generally. Time and space preclude the possibility of referring in detail to the several exhibits especially worthy of mention—and there are many such.

SECOND DAY.

The weather fortunately continuing fair, the attendance at the exhibition during the forenoon of to-day was considerable. At 10 o'clock, the Hon. W. Smithe, in a brief and appropriate speech, declared the exhibition open. He congratulated the directors on the result of their efforts, expressing the opinion that the show was the best of the kind he had ever witnessed. The Victoria Band, under the leadership of W. Haynes, which had arrived at 10 o'clock sharp, played God Save the Queen, and the exhibition was formally open. In the afternoon the attendance of visitors was very large every person appearing pleased, and many expressing themselves as agreeably disappointed at the extent and variety of the articles, especially where the products of the farm and garden and of the artizan, were neatly arranged. The ladies and artists department, in the gallery, containing an exceptionally large display of fancy needlework and paintings, received a large share of attention and the hearty encomiums of all.

The feature of the show most deserving of praise, next in order to the extraordinarily fine display of fruits, is the variety of home manufactures. We must honestly confess that we were not prepared to see so many branches of manufacture represented on the ground floor of the building, the most conspicuous, and perhaps the finest display in this line, is the soap exhibit of W. J. Pendray & Co. It includes every conceivable variety, in every conceivable shape, from a monument like Aberdeen granite down to the little cake of toilet, and in every magnifiable color. The firm are certainly to be congratulated upon the imaguificent showing they make. An assortment of stoves, ranges, etc., made by the Albion Iron Works, is also home manufacture, and highly creditable. R. Greenway, shows a collection of wire flower stands and screens, a new industry in the city. Splendid carriages are shown by Wm. Mable and J. Meston, equal in finish to the best the come from the east. Mouldings and mantles cut by Jas. Fisher and Geo. Rudge; luxurious parlor furniture made by J. Sehl, and brooms—that indispensable article, where clean houses and sober husbands are desired—made also in the city by A. Strachan, testify in some degree to the diversity of our local industries. The Belmont Co., have a superb display of leather and its manufactures, and in the same line Johnson & Magirl exhibit excellent specimens of their hand tanned article. In flour and meal there is not much competition, but what is shown by Brackmann & Ker, is of a superior quality—a fair sample of what the island can produce in this line. The Pioneer Coffee and Spice mills; J. H. Marer, furrier, and W. Newbury, trunks and valises, make very fine displays in their respective lines. Kurtz & Co.'s cigars neatly arranged in show cases, direct attention to another important industry, which we learn is steadily growing in importance. The products of this concern are now the favorite brands with the smokers of the province; handsome specimens of book binding are shown by R. T. Williams; E. Crowther displays his handiwork as an engraver on copper; while S. Whittaker's assortment of stuffed birds is an evidence that taxidermy is an art practised to perfection in our own province. All of the above are home productions, but along with these are a great many elaborate displays of wares of all kinds by our merchants. C. A Lombard & Company, have Bell organs and pianos; T N Hibben & Co, photos of railway views and M W Waitt & Co.'s Prang's cards. The stoves of E & C Gurney, of Hamilton, are exhibited by A Cowan. Our photographers may well be proud of their artistic workmanship. In this line there are fine displays by Maynard and Hastings, the competition being so keen that the judges counted it a draw and gave both a first prize. Mr. T S Gore, a young artist of good repute, has a collection of Island railway views and other pictures. The sewing machine agents, alive to the benefits of the advertisement, show their machines at work and exhibit many marvellous samples of stitching. The Domestic is shown by Fletcher, a lady operator doing the most elegant embroidery and giving it away as finished. A novelty here is a small squirrel revolving a wheel and working a lady Domestic, and a self-running machine. W. H. Adams also shows the famous Singer machine, and a young lady is constantly present to explain its operation and superiority. The work done is, without a doubt, remarkable for its fineness and durability. Mrs. Tretheway, of Matsqui, arrived too late to enter a lamb knitter but succeeded in getting a place and is explaining its superiority over the old knitting needles with considerable success. Our friend of the Colonist has a very fine assortment of lithographic and printing work. The competition in roots and grains is very large, and nearly every entry is of a superior class. There is an extraordinary number of apples and other fruits; while the floral display is not behind the other departments in extent and variety. Mr. G. A. McTavish's pyramid of flowers and boquets is the finest in the hall. A. Cameron also shows a collection of ferns which are much admired.

ARIZONA'S INDIANS.

Governor Tritle Interviewed in St. Louis—Approves Their Removal.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—Ex-Gov. Tritle, of Arizona, was in the city yesterday in regard to the removal of the Indians by Gen. Miles from the territory. He said: "Removal of Indians was demanded by the Arizona Association of Pioneers, by every newspaper in the territory for many years, and in every annual report made by me under the Arthur and Cleveland administrations. I asked for same, and Secretary Lamar, in making this report to Congress last December, embodied my recommendations, thereby endorsing them." Do you think General Miles was to blame for making a compromise with Geronimo?" "No. I do not. I think Miles pursued the only possible course to secure peace in the territory. It was always General Crook's opinion, and always mine, that the capture of Geronimo, on any terms, and removal of him and his men was essential to permanent peace in the territories. If these Indians had been forced to surrender unconditionally, as the government demanded, which it would have been almost impossible to make them do, and had been given legal trial for their crimes, what good would it all have done? No witnesses were alive to prove their guilt and they would have been cleared for want of evidence, that is if they had not escaped before their trial and resumed their bloody operations.

ANARCHISTS TO SWING.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—This afternoon, when Judge Geary asked the prisoners whether they had anything to offer why sentence should not be passed upon them, Spies stepped forward and began reading a prepared speech. While it is not known with any degree of certainty, it is stated that Dec. 3rd will be the date named for the execution.

Judge Geary in the criminal court this morning, overruled the motion for a new trial in the cases of the eight Anarchists charged with Haymarket massacre, and confirmed verdict of the jury that Spies, Parsons, Fielding, Schwab, Engel, Fisher and Lingg, should be hanged, and that Neebe should suffer imprisonment for fourteen years in the State penitentiary. The court did not conclude his decision until 12:30 o'clock, and owing to the interruption of counsel for the prisoners he deferred passing sentence upon them until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CHICAGO'S SOCIALISTS.

The crowds which besieged the criminal court this morning for admittance to Judge Geary's court room, is larger than at any time during the Anarchists' trials. The speeches which the condemned men are making in their own behalf, and the fact that the date for their execution is to be given to-day, accounts for the large number who sought admission, and the small number who were successful. When the court was opened, Geo. Eugle, one of the defendats at once began his speech. Engle recounted his experiences in Germany, where he was born and recited the hardships and tyrannies the people were forced to submit to there. He came to this country; sought work in Philadelphia and Chicago, and found the same sate of affairs here existing. Capitalists became rich by their oppression of the working classes. Engle then made a study of the question. He read Henry George's book and became a Socialist.

NEWS BY CABLE.

CONTINENTAL AFFAIRS.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The North German Gazette denies reports that the government intended to replace military septennate by another arrangement for determining the strength of the army. The Gazette says nothing in that direction has ever been considered.

The appeal of the Socialists over Babel and others against the sentence of the court at Friebury comes before the court of appeal at Leipsic on Oct. 20. If that tribunal should confirm the sentence, six of the condemned who are members of the Reichstadt, will be unable to appear at next session. Their term of imprisonment covering nine months. The estimates of the Prussian Minister of Finance show the budget of '86 closing with a deficit. The railway receipts have increased over those of the preceding year, but the income from most of taxes is notably below the budget calculation.

Lawrence's cotton mill and four houses at Charley, Lancaster, are destroyed by fire. Loss over a million dollars.

The Counte Civry, Nationalist, grand son of the Duke of Brunswick, has been arrested here on charge of swindling.

THE FIRE FIEND.

A Fatal Fire Breaks out in a New York Factory—Perilous Positions.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A fire broke out early this morning in a four story building, occupied by eight different firms, at 67 Bayard street. In three cloak manufactories, on the fourth floor, between 50 and 70 men, women and children were at work when the fire occurred. The employees of two establishments found their escape by the staircase blocked by flames. The fire, which was below them in the quilt factory, frightened the employees then, who made for the roof of the building. They rushed to the flat roof with their clothes on fire, and half smothered. The adjoining factory was a two story house with a peaked roof. With shrieks and terror the women flung themselves off the roof. Minnie Roganoky falling in the street, on her head, was mortally hurt, her skull being crushed in. She was removed to the hospital. A little boy, who was clinging to coping of a peak roofed house, was rescued by an old volunteer fireman with the aid of some citizens and police. The police went upon the roof of the tall tenement, No. 71, and threw a rope down to the factory employees who were still hanging on the roof of the burning building, and they were rescued one after another. Others were taken into the window from the peak of the roofed house. By this time the roof of the factory was on fire, but the firemen were soon masters of the situation. The searching showed that nobody had been burned to death. The loss will be about $200,000

TEN HOURS STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The great strike of employees of the Chicago packing houses against the proposition to return to ten hours for a working day began this morning. The packing house owners had put up printed notices notifying their men that beginning with next Monday they expected work of ten hours instead of eight a day. This morning a committee of fifteen hundred men employed by the Chicago Packing and Provision Company waited on the foreman of the work and demanded that the notices be taken down. The demand was refused and the regiment of workmen at once left the building and were soon joined by eight hundred men employed in the Silverhorn works. Thus reinforced, the large force went in a body to the Armour works, to induce men there to stop work. There is great excitement at the yards but no trouble yet.

LATEST FROM CHICAGO.

During Engle's address to-day he became very bitter in his remarks about American courts and law before he concluded. He spoke until 11 o'clock. Sam. Fielden then spoke. He related in substance what he had said upon the witness stand, and declared he never had been guilty of any violence; that newspapers had either misrepresented, or misunderstood him, and that they were responsible for his death. He declared he had never urged the sacking of wholesale stores. When he had concluded speaking the court adjourned until 1 o'clock.

The workmen at Armour's and the Anglo American packing houses, refused to go out to-day. Everything is quiet at the stock yards.

GEN. MILES AND GERONIMO.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The Post this morning says: It cannot be discovered that anything has been said officially at the War Department to justify the report that General Miles disobeyed orders and made terms with Geronimo; but it is said that certain officials in the department may not positively be giving out reports but have encouraged publication of strictures on Miles, in order to favor Crook who seems to meet with special consideration from some quarters, because he was a West Point graduate while Mills is a volunteer soldier.

GEN. JACKSON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A special from Mexico says: General Jackson presented his letter of recall to President Diaz yesterday, and that evening he left for the United States. In the railway depot he received from the American colony and other foreigners and Mexicans the greatest ovation ever given any American in Mexico, with the single exception of Gen. Grant. The American colony presented him with a handsome oil painting of the Valley of Mexico. He accepted it in a feeling speech, full of gratitude to his countrymen.

LONGER HOURS OF LABOR.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The owners of the largest packing establishments gave their employees a formal notice that, beginning with next Monday, ten hours would constitute a working day. This only affects the men in the hog killing and packing establishments, about 15,000 in number, the men in the cattle and sheep killing department having previously effected a compromise so as to work by hour.

AGAIN SHAKES.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 8.—There were three shocks of earthquake at Summerville last night. Reports differ as to the intensity of the shocks. Some residents declared that they were more severe than any disturbance since Aug. 31st; while others report they were slight tremors. No one was hurt, however, and no damage done to property. Slight shocks were also felt here at 5 o'clock this morning.

AN INSUFFERABLE NUISANCE.

The jurymen engaged on the WISE-TUTTLE case have ground for complaint against the bench, or bar, or sheriff, or registrar, or somebody or other (it is difficult to fix the responsibility) for the long and annoying delays before opening proceedings in the morning and after each adjournment. On Wednesday the court did not begin until 12 o'clock although 11 was the hour for which the jurors had been summoned. The adjournment for luncheon was until 2:30; it was about 3 when the legal fraternity came straggling in—and this is the usual custom every day. The jurymen would be either severely censured or fined if they happened to be a quarter of an hour late; but what is sauce for the members of the bench and bar is not sauce for the unfortunate jurymen. They must simply grin and bear it and pocket their grievances; and their beggarly per diem allowance with the best grace possible. No reform in court proceedings is more imperatively demanded in Victoria than a change in the direction of punctuality. The legal gentlemen must be made to understand that the time of merchants and business men is too precious to be wasted in lounging about the court-room waiting their pleasure and convenience to begin business, for the transaction of which their attendance had been peremptorily commanded.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

Judge PROUDFOOT has rendered an important judgment in the High Court of Justice of Ontario in Toronto, in the case of Simmons vs. Dalton. This is regarded as a test case concerning the Franchise Act. It was an application for a mandamus to compel Revising Officer Woods, of Chatham, for the County of Kent, to hear a petition to erase the name of one DALTON from the voters' list. It was contended that the decision of the revising officer under the act was final. His Lordship held that the High Court of Justice had jurisdiction to compel revising barristers to do their duty, and that there was an appeal to said court from their decision under the Electoral Franchise Act. The mandamus was accordingly granted. It is gratifying to the people to learn that according to the decision of Judge PROUDFOOT the High Court of Justice has jurisdiction in regard to this act, not only in this particular case but also because it is in every sense desirable, in the opinion of all fair-minded persons, that the very wide discretion given to these officers under the act should be in some way reviewable by the regularly constituted courts of the country.

INSURANCE IN CANADA.

The report of the Dominion superintendent of Insurance for the year 1885 has just been issued, and contains many facts of interest. The cash received from premiums during the year in Canada has amounted to $4,852,460, being less than that received in 1884, by $127,668; and the amount paid for losses has been $2,679,287, which is less than that paid in 1884, by $566,036. The gross amount of policies taken during the year by fire companies was $486,002,908, a decrease of $27,980,470, as compared with the previous year. The rate of premium is somewhat greater than that of 1884. During the year 1885 the business of fire insurance in Canada was carried on by 29 active companies; of these six were Canadian, nineteen British and four American. The business of life insurance was carried on in Canada last year by 29 active companies, of which ten were Canadian, eleven British and eight American. The amount of insurance effected by each of these classes in 1885 was: By Canadian companies, $14,881,695; British, $3,950,647; American, $8,332,646. The total amount of policies in Canada taken during the year 1885 has been $27,164,988, exceeding the amount taken in 1884 by $3,747,076, and of this increase the largest share pertains to the Canadian companies, being $1,955,430, while in 1884 they had gained $1,042,948; the American companies have an increase of $1,008,909, as against $912,102 in 1884; and the British companies have an increase of $782,737, whilst last year they had a decrease of $110,098.

CAN MANAGE OURSELVES.

Another straw indicating the drift of the current of British public opinion in the direction of imperial federation, is furnished by the somewhat remarkable suggestion contained in an article contributed to Blackwood's Magazine by LAWRENCE OLIPHANT. "What is needed in Canada," says the writer, who has had some experience in colonial official work, "is an imperial officer, who might still be called civil secretary, and be attached to the Governor-General's staff, and whose functions should be party political and party diplomatic." He goes on to point out that delicate questions frequently arise between the provinces, involving local issues, and requiring a special mission for their settlement, and urges that any agent appointed by the Dominion government for this purpose, being always a partizan, finds himself opposed and criticised by the party out of power. He thinks that had such an official existed the difficulties with the Northwest, British Columbia, and Nova Scotia might have been settled more easily and effectually, and that Newfoundland could have been brought into the union, and the fishery and other questions with the United States arranged. We fear that Mr. OLIPHANT overrates the tact and the acumen of the average British diplomat very greatly. The blunders of British negotiators who have from time to time been appointed to arrange treaties and settle disputes with the United States, owing to whose ignorance or carelessness the wide-awake Americans possessed themselves of large areas which ought rightly to belong to Canada, is an emphatic warning against allowing such imperial functionaries to intermeddle with Canadians affairs, even if there were no stronger reasons. Mr. OLIPHANT states that leading members of the Dominion government favor his preposterous scheme, which is quite probable. The Canadian people are quite competent to attend to their own affairs.

HUGE COAL COMBINATION.

The Philadelphia Record has been waging war against the coal combination for two years, and claims that it has managed to reduce the price by $1.60 a ton in that time. On September 26th, 1884, the Record announced that it would take orders for family coal at a reduction of 75 cents per ton on the rate then current. In one day it broke the retail price of coal in Philadelphia from $6.50 to $5.75 per ton, and in two years has supplemented that work by lowering the retail price to $4.90 per ton. As long ago as 1860 coal has been delivered in consumer's cellars in Philadelphia for $4.50 per ton, but though mining and other expenses have been greatly reduced, the business of supplying coal has passed into the hands of two great corporations, which tax consumers at their own will and pleasure. In two years the Record has placed orders for 64,724 tons of coal, for which the sum of $338,378 has been paid to the dealers who supplied the coal, the Record making no profit, either directly or indirectly, out of the transactions. A reduction of $1.60 per ton in the price of family coal has been brought about, and a saving estimated at $3,500,000 has been effected during two years in the cost of the fuel used by Philadelphians. The history of the coal business supplies a strong argument in favor of the ownership of railways by the State. It is too bad that the taxing power should be left in the hands of private individuals, and that is what the present state of affairs amounts to. If the rental value of the mines went to the State in lieu of other taxes, and the railways were managed in the interest of the people, there might be fewer millionaires in Pennsylvania, but the standard of comfort among the people who consume coal would be raised considerably.

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

Referring to the great Conservative gathering recently held at Winchester, Ont., and the speeches delivered, of Sir JOHN MACDONALD the Montreal Herald says: The conspicuous characteristic of his speech, however, was its want of dignity. From the Premier of Canada something more than poor jokes and a boasting of achievements, for which he has received all due credit, is required. Servile braggadocio is regrettable and servile frivolity is lamentable. The world knows that Mr. MACKENZIE's plan was to build the Canadian Pacific Railway one way and that a better one was adopted by Sir JOHN MACDONALD, but by mentioning this fact too often, and too often without the least generous forbearence towards his former able but now suffering opponent, Sir JOHN MACDONALD has come to believe that the phenomenal way in which the C. P. R. was completed and the equally phenomenal success that it has achieved, was all his doings. This is quite a mistake. He gave financial assistance when it was required and this enabled the work to be done by others. The sovereign who kept Bacon in comparative affluence did not write his essays. And in referring to the opposition that was offered to the C. P. R. in its early years Sir JOHN might have remembered that the most virulent, persistent, and effective opposition came from the management and agents of a railway which enjoyed his countenance and support throughout it all, and for whose wrong doings he has been the shield, where he should have been the avenger. He might have stopped the opposition in London at any moment.

ANGUS SUTHERLAND, M. P., for Sutherlandshire, will soon start for the United States and Canada, where he will lecture on the Crofters and form a Highland League. SUTHERLAND is sent by the Crofters.

YALE'S LIBEL CASE.

A Verdict of $2,500 Rendered for the Plaintiff.

THURSDAY, Oct. 7, 1886.

After recess the first witness examined was Mr. Andrew Reesbeck; then Mr. J. C. McLagan, of THE TIMES, relative to the receipt and the publication of Mr. Irwin's letter signed "Junius" and the subsequent ones received by him from Mr. Irwin. Mr. E. Geyrell, Chilliwhack, was examined as to injuries sustained by him in Yale.

Mr. James McArthur, one of the memorialists and an important witness for the defence, was examined at some length. It was this gentlemen that the defendant had arrested in the Indian's house on the ranchere, charged with supplying the aborigines with whiskey and taken to jail by Constable Wise; he knew nothing as to the cause of his arrest until told so by the plaintiff after he had lodged him in the cell. Had gone to the ranchere for his washing; had not had a change of garments for ten days; was in the house about half an hour; plaintiff had taken from me $5 and subsequently $50 had been paid by a friend as his bail. After considerable delay he had been acquitted and the money given back. During the examination of this witness he caused considerable amusement in court.

Cross-examined by Mr. Davie: The Klootchman did not appear to be under the influence of liquor when Wise came in; she was excited at Wise's appearance. She was in bed when I got there. The door was barred but she got up and let me in. Saw the bottle on the floor and shelf, one being on floor.

Counsel presented document to witness asking him if that was his signature, in my handwriting. Remember signing a paper for Lawyer Gibbs. [This affidavit stated that owing to being overburdened with fatigue from extra hours of labor he had reclined on the bed in Annie's cabin.] He stated that he had signed no such declaration, although the name was in his own handwriting. The statement was not true; he had not reclined on the bed and gone asleep. Deighton did not require me to put up a cash bail of $50. Wise never demanded a cash bail from me, he said it would be required; Mr. Davie again read from the document and asked witness if he knew it was his bail bond, to which he replied that he did not know.

Mr. Davie—Then you do not know a bond when you see it. Continuing witness said: No charge was made against Annie the same day for being drunk. Mr. Wise told "California George" that he would fine Annie and afterwards withdraw the charge as he wanted her as a witness against me. She was not under the influence of liquor in any way. Deighton was present when Wise spoke of sending to New Westminster for the Indian agent and giving me three months. Am still living at Yale. Do not know where Annie now is. She was at Hope, when I was there a short time ago. She is at the Hope Indian reserve. Was at Hope since this trouble, the Indian woman being there. She still took in my washing. It was one week last Saturday evening since I saw Annie last. Had an account against Annie of $2. It is not paid yet. Mr. Hett said the exhibit handed to the jury a short time ago had been tampered with since yesterday, to which Mr. Davie replied that it was untrue, and that if the insinuation came from any one else but Mr. Hett it would have been contemptible. Subsequently the missing paper was found.

John McLennan was the next witness; he had been deputy-sheriff at Yale but resigned that position, for he could not work with plaintiff, who had been hung in effigy last April; plaintiff had said to him that he did not care a snap for the libel, it was the money he desired; witness had left Yale. In his cross-examination witness stated that the plaintiff and he had fallen out; plaintiff had written scurrilous letters about him last spring.

George Fleming, sworn: This witness gave evidence regarding the Mrs. McDonald case and the arrest of Billy Henry. Other cases were referred to by this witness who is a watchman at the railway crossing.

F. Geizler, a saloon and hotel keeper at Emory, testified that he had taken out county court summonses for which he paid Irwin $8. Wise demanded a further sum of $5; said Irwin had not paid him the $8 I had paid, so I paid Wise the $5. Mr. Irwin wanted to see Wise about the matter, but I advised him not to raise a row. On being cross-examined said he had paid Wise in all $9.60. Signed petition against Wise in Tuttle's saloon. Tuttle asked me to sign the petition. I asked what it was for and he said: "Oh, it's nothing, only about a whisky case."

Joseph Irwin, sworn—Am a schoolteacher in Yale since August, 1882. I wrote the letter signed "Junius," but there were some changes made in it. When I wrote the letter I believed the facts to be true. I did not know anything about the law on the subject. Wrote the letter since signing the petition. Cross-examined—On being shown letters admitted they were in his handwriting. Subscribe for the WEEKLY TIMES and read the letter in the TIMES. Dated both letters ahead of the time they were written.

The case for the defendants here rested.

The plaintiff was recalled and examined for rebuttal evidence. In his cross-examination said he did not act as chief constable before being sworn in, some three weeks after reaching Yale. It is just possible I was just sworn in when the Bossi affair occurred.

This closed the evidence in the case and a recess was taken until 7 o'clock in the evening.

After evening session, Mr. J. Roland Hett, counsel for the defendants, began an able address on behalf of his clients. He was followed by Mr. J. P. Walls on the same side. Mr. Theo. Davie closed the argument of counsel. His Lordship reviewed the evidence in a clear, logical manner. He charged strongly against the defendants. The jury, after an absence of about an hour, returned with a verdict of $2000 damages against the defendants, and in addition the sum of $500 against Joseph Irwin, the author of the letter signed "Junius" which appeared in THE TIMES. The court then adjourned.

It is understood the jury were unanimous in their verdict, which was agreed on a few minutes after they had retired. The amount of the award is the theme of conversation on the streets to-day. It is not yet known whether it will be appealed against.

EVERYBODY SHOULD DRINK MILK.

A Physician Says It's a Better Tonic Than Malt Preparations.

It was a long, low, unfinished apartment, the rough joists and beams being simply coated with whitewash. The clear ash floor was scrubbed to a snowy whiteness, and the few chairs that the room contained were placed against the wall in a prim sort of way that seemed to indicate that they had not been displaced in some time. Along one side of this apartment were racks upon which were pans of milk, tier on tier, nearly to the ceiling. Milk cans of various sizes stood about and a long tron sink contained milk bottles that a young maid was busily scalding. It was, in fact, the milk room of a Jersey dairyman. The young girl informed a reporter that her father would be in in a few minutes. He came presently, followed by two stout farm hands, each bearing two brimming pails of milk which were speedily transferred to newly scalded bottles. The farmer remarked that those Alderneys would have to get more corn meal, because they were invalid cows and must be well fed. Then he noticed the visitor and nodded a good morning.

"Why are they invalid cows?" asked the newsman.

"Why, you see, there are a certain class of customers who drink lots of milk simply for medicine. There's a lady on Madison avenue, in New York, that takes three quarts a day, and I'm told she drinks it all herself. Some of these people are regular cranks, and the moment you give them milk from a new cow, they spot it. There was a little Jersey heifer, 3 years old, that used to give beautiful milk almost as golden as the butter that could be made from it, and this I furnished to a consumptive individual on Twenty-third street. He seemed to thrive on it, and actually began to gain flesh, though his physician had assured him that there was little hope. Well, I got a chance to sell the cow, and as she gave so little milk I did so. My customer was nearly wild when I told him that this accounted for the change in the milk. He inquired anxiously as to who purchased and sent post haste to the man. He was just in time to prevent the animal's becoming beef. The heifer thus saved from the butcher's knife was placed in a fine stable, fed like a queen, and the owner had the two or more quarts of milk furnished every day for his own use.

"I often drink milk myself when I don't feel well, and it always does me good. Nearly every milkman has individual customers who take milk purely because they think it strengthens the system."

A prominent city physician subsequently seen by the reporter said: "I regard milk as a better tonic than most preparations. It helps the impoverished blood and furnishes a nutriment easily taken by the system. The principal parts of the milk are the olein or oily parts, the caseine or cheesy portion, and the phosphates of lime and potash. In butter we get the olein, in cheese the olein and caseine together, because the caseine, when the curd forms, holds the olein together. In cases of typhoid fever I give milk altogether, and I have known many a person to be brought from death's door through its agency.

It is now a common practice to inject milk into the blood when it is impoverished. That fluid takes it up and appropriates it in some unaccountable way and people's lives have been saved in this way. I drink a glass of milk every night before going to bed, and have for years.—New York Mail and Express.

The Pope's Golden Rose.

A descendant of the famous Cellini, also bearing that name, engraved the golden rose recently presented by the pope to the queen regent of Spain.

The first of these golden roses were simply flowers of red enamel, representing the natural color of the rose. Later the color of the rose was left white, and a large ruby was put into the center, the reflection from which gave the petals a red tint. Innocent XI. had a golden rose made which weighed over eight pounds, was ornamented with several sapphires, and represented a value of over 10,000 francs. Alexander VII. ordered one rose at nearly 6,000 francs and another at 4,000 francs.

Lately the golden rose has been worth over 10,000 francs, and has taken the form of a branch with several flowers, a natural rose, which has been blessed by the pope, forming the center. Of this kind is the rose which the queen regent of Spain has just received. It is planted in a magnificent silver vase, which is a splendid example of Roman workmanship. The rose itself is said to be a symbol of the creator; the splendor and richness of the metal represents the eternal light which surrounds the Divine, and the perfumes and spices which are placed in the vase by the pope symbolize the glory and resurrection of Christ.—Court Journal.

The Causes of Baldness.

Though most persons are sensitive about the gradual disappearance of their hair, it is not generally from any fault of their own. The hair of the northern nations is brown and fine and disappears easily. That of the southern nations is dark and coarse, and every separate hair is put through the two or three envelopes that cover the skull and clinched on the other side. Baldness is common in northern Europe and rare in Spain and Italy. It is much more common in the north of France and Italy than in the south of those countries.

Baldness then becomes simply an accident of birth. "Why," it is asked sadly, "is that hapless being bald?" And the reply must necessarily be, "Not because he was prematurely pious or preternaturally wicked, but because he had the misfortune to be born in a cold instead of in a warm country, and so was endowed with finer hair and a more refined organism." Bald-headed people should, then, rather be pitied than despised, or perhaps looked upon as being more delicately organized, more spiritual or more ethereal than their fellows.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Great Composer's Illness.

Fraulein Brandt said that she had met Liszt at the musical festival in Sondershausen. "I was astonished and grieved to find the master so ill," she said. "He looked terrible. His right eye is blind, and the sight of his left eye will soon be gone. Aside from that, an incurable sickness has taken hold of his body. But, nevertheless, he held out bravely and conducted the festival as he had promised, but with great pain and many difficulties. I sang Dr. Damrosch's 'Sulamith' at one of the concerts, and the master expressed his highest regard for the composition." The Abbe Liszt's incurable complaint, it is understood, is dropsy.—New York Sun.

Why They Boil Locomotives.

"What is that big iron thing full of holes?" asked Laura. "Locomotive boiler," said Tom. Laura looked thoughtful. After a moment's silence she asked: "Why do they boil locomotives?" Tom looked amazed: "To make 'em tender," he said, slowly.—Burdette in Brooklyn Eagle.

PAID A DOCTOR TEN DOLLARS FOR NOTHING.

James E. Lawlor, sworn, before Judge Dalt, Toronto, 1882; Jas. Bethune, Q. C., for plaintiffs: "I live on King street, Toronto; I keep a cigar store. I got a Starr Kidney Pad the first of the year. I had a pain just across the small of my back. I had the pain for about three weeks—I don't know what brought it on. I was speaking to Mr. Robert L. Kidd one day, and he advised me to get one of the pads as it cured him he said; I got it and I wore it for about four weeks when I was cured; I went home to Nova Scotia on a visit, and I was better, before I started and I have not had the pad on since. I am well and sound now. Q.—To what do you attribute your cure? A.—Well, the pad; I took nothing else; I had no other remedy. I believe the pad did it, a doctor charged me $10 for sounding my kidneys and some medicine which did me no good. This I paid some time before trying the pad. I used no other medicine after but the pad. Cross-examination—Q.—You felt the pain until you got to Nova Scotia? A.—Oh! no; I had no notion of going home until the night before I left; I put the pad on between Christmas and New Year's; I decided to go home because I was well, otherwise I would not have gone. Q.—You had just been over exerting yourself, and your back wanted a rest? A.—I don't know; I had not exerted any in hard work in my business, and I am temperate in all things. Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

These Pills are compounded from the purest drugs, from those only which are known to act upon the Generative Organs in Females. It is a well known fact that a very large proportion of the ills to which Females are liable, are the direct result of Suppressed or Disordered Menstruation, and it is necessary therefore that a safe and reliable remedy for the cure of these diseases be placed within the reach of every one. Dr. Le Duc's Pills are the oldest, most generally used, and most reliable remedy for the cure of Suppressed Menstruation, and other Uterine diseases, and wherever they have been introduced have driven every other remedy out of the market. They were first introduced into Paris, France, by Dr. LeDuc in 1839, and have so gained the confidence of the public that they have for years been the standing remedy in every household. Thousands of Old and Young Men he has Cured.

and it is a well known fact that for years he has confined himself to the study and treatment of Sexual and Chronic Diseases, thus giving him advantages few possess. Dr. Vanmoncisar addresses particularly those who have already tried various physicians and remedies from whom they have received no benefit, and who, in fact, have done them more harm than good. Medicine, like all other sciences, is progressive, and every year shows proof of its advance. By a combination of remedies of great curative power, Dr. Vanmoncisar has so arranged his treatment that it will afford not only immediate relief, but permanent cures.

YOUNG MEN

who are suffering from the effects of youthful indiscretions showing some of the following symptoms: Nervous and Physical Debility, Impotency (incapacity) Lost Manhood, Abuses of the system, Enlarged Vitality, Confusion of Ideas, Dull and Loss of Brilliancy to the Eye, Aversion to Society, Despondency, Pimples on the Face, Loss of Energy, and Premature Old Age, etc. You may be in the first stages, but remember you are fast approaching the last. Do not let false pride and sham modesty deter you from attending to your ailments. Many a bright and naturally gifted young man, endowed with genius, has permitted his case to run on and on, until remorse racked his intellect, and finally death claimed its victim. Remember that "Procrastination is the thief of time." So lay aside your pride, and consult one who thoroughly understands your ailment, and who will know your case, and guarantee relief for an ailment that has made days a drudgery and night hideous. Thousands upon thousands of men in good standing in the social world, of prominence in the world are today suffering from the fruits of their doings, the seeds of which were sown during moments for thoughtlessness. Young man turn and gaze upon thy companion, or seek the mirror for proof to substantiate this fact. Oh! could he control the arm of Fate, or had he his life to live again, then I could not appeal to you more sincerely. Let your mind wander back to the much cherished counsels of a loving father, and remember what you are to-day. Though you may for the present fill your station in society, the time is as inevitable as fate when your brilliancy will, like a flash, depart, leaving you a stranded wreck—shunned, forgotten and lost, so embrace the opportunity and enjoy life and happiness longer. If you claim to be a man, act your part manly. Do not console yourself with the thought that there will be back for in doing so you not only fan the flame, but wreck Nature and yourself. Remember, "large oaks from little acorns grow." "Little ills genitalis fatal diseases."

Middle-aged Men,

married or single, who are prematurely old as a result of excesses or youthful follies, and who are troubled by too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and leaving a deposit of ropy sediment in the urine, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will first be of a thin, or milkish hue, and again changing to a dark or turbid appearance, causing nervous debility and loss of vitality. Remember, this is the second stage of seminal Weakness. In all such cases a perfect cure is guaranteed, and a radical restoration of the Genito-Urinary Organs. All consultations and letters are sacredly confidential. Medicines packed so as not excite curiosity, and sent by express, if full description of case is given, but one personal interview is all essential to a perfect cure. Patients treated by mail or express. Call early and avoid crowding. Office hours, 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.; Sundays, 10 A. M. to 2 P. M.

THE ANCON ASHORE

At Glacier Bay—Leaking Badly—She is Beached in Bartlett Bay.

NANAIMO, Oct. 8.—Special to THE TIMES.—The Idaho has arrived. The Ancon struck on a sunken rock one mile off Port Gustoven, entrance to Glacier Bay, on Sept., 13th, at 10 p. m., and was leaking. She was beached one and a half mile from Port Gustoven, in Bartlett Bay. Sent a launch to Sitka. Got the Pinta and went in her to Juneau. Got lumber and help there to make temporary repairs. The Idaho went to the wreck on September 27th; thence to Sitka; returning to the wreck on October 2. Took passengers from the Ancon and the repairs having been made, the Ancon got off and proceeded in company with the Pinta and Idaho to Juneau. Capt. Carroll beached her near the saw mill, on Douglas Island, to make further repairs, and anticipates being able to leave about Oct. 15th on the return trip. The rock on which she struck was entirely unknown. The weather had been bad during September and October.

Lieut. Schwatka came on the Idaho, having ascended Mount St. Elias about 8,000 feet. A number of Sisters came down on the Idaho.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

Another worthy citizen died somewhat unexpectedly yesterday afternoon. Mr. Sigismund Lowenberg, of the firm of Lowenberg, Harris & Co., who had been ailing for a few days, breathed his last, much to the regret of a great many citizens who knew the deceased, who had been a resident of Victoria for many years and had endeared himself to all by his many fine qualities of head and heart. He was aged 67 years, and was a native of Potsdam, Prussia. He was a member of the prominent firm of Lowenberg & Harris, real estate dealers, and was as upright in his business dealings as he was kind and affable in his social relations. His unexpected death caused a general feeling of regret throughout the city.

A TRAIN IN A MUSKEG.

The Accident on the Canadian Pacific Railway near Rat Portage.

The Pacific Express Dashes into a Muskeg—Narrow Escape of the Passengers.

The full particulars of the accident on the Canadian Pacific on the night of Sunday, the 3d inst., at a point east of Rat Portage, are to hand in the Winnipeg Free Press. Where the accident happened the road after running through a long rock cut takes a sharp curve and runs along the base of a steep hill, cutting for two hundred feet across the corner of a muskeg of some eight or ten acres in extent. The road lies not on trestle work but on earth which had been dumped in, making an artificial shore; and it was apparently so strongly built that the possibility of an accident such as occurred was never thought of. On the morning in question shortly before 1 o'clock a heavy freight train of twenty cars passed over this piece of road in safety, and twenty minutes later crossed the eastern express at Gilbert. The latter train with a full head of steam on dashed past the station and was soon in the long rock-cut. As the engine emerged from it and swung round the curve Engineer Fetterly looking through the head-light saw immediately in front of him, to the water, in place of keeping straight along the side of the lake. He knew immediately what was wrong—the bank on which the road was built had slid into the muskeg carrying the rails with it. Although so close upon it that no mortal power could avert the crash, he caught the lever to reverse the engine, but just as his hand touched it the locomotive reached the fatal spot and in an instant leaped into the muddy and yielding morass. The engine turned on her side and went a third of the way into the mud; the tender stood almost up on end on the locomotive, catching Fetterly about the shoulders and bruising him badly. The locomotive strained for a moment; then a valve burst and the leapt out in jets and struck the devoted man on the face and the shoulder. J. T. Lyons, the fireman, although badly scalded himself about the legs, immediately caught Fetterly and pulled him out from under the coal which had fallen on him from the tender. The engine when turning over applied the air-breaks, and this really saved the entire train from rushing headlong into the muskeg. As it was the baggage car struck the tender with such force that it split its roof, going over the top of the tender, while the body of the car went under it, knocking its trucks from beneath. The second class car turned half over; the first class car and the sleeper remained on the track.

THE RAILS SWERVE DOWN

THE PASSENGERS ASLEEP.

When the train left the track the passengers were calmly slumbering, but in a moment's time everyone was wide awake. The baggageman, Wm. Gray, woke up to find himself caught by heavy trunks and securely made a prisoner. To his horror and dismay the lamps exploded under the shock, and in a moment the whole car was ablaze. What his sensations were as he lay there pinioned fast despite his most desperate efforts to release himself, watching the flames draw nearer and nearer, may be left to the imagination, but soon the welcome sound of the axe was heard and strong hands soon freed him.

THE INJURED.

The mail clerk, J. O. Farrell, had likewise a narrow escape. F. B. Shaw, Joseph Beavill and a couple of lumbermen were injured. Mr. Chas. Shaw, C. E., was injured seriously. He was sleeping near the stove, and the shock threw his feet right against it. A seat falling on him pinioned him there, and the stove broke, scattering its coal over him. After several desperate efforts he got from beneath the seat and escaped the dreadful fate of being burned to death, but not before his left foot was shockingly burned. Geo. Pearson, of Montreal, was also injured.

IN THE PULLMAN CAR

the sight presented was a lively one, the shock threw nobody from their berths, but in an instant's time everyone made a

and the aisle was packed with men trying to lay hands on their clothes. The women were frightened, as were the men also, for that matter, but the latter tried to calm their fears by telling them there was no danger. Soon, however, the crash of the glass made by the train men extracting the axe from its receptacle behind the Pullman where it is kept for emergencies, and the glare of the burning cars in front shining through the windows, notified them all that the accident was a serious one, and they filed out pell mell. The scene was a weird one, not likely to be soon forgotten by any who witnessed it. It was the unbroken wilderness; to the left rose a dark hill, and on the other side were the muddy waters of the morass lit up by the blazing cars consumed with extraordinary rapidity. But it was not for sightseeing, for the cries of men in distress were heard from the wreck in front. The Pullman was unhitched and run backwards, and as fast as the wounded were extracted from the debris they were borne back into it and soon it became quite a hospital. The ladies on the train immediately set to work to do all in their power to relieve the sufferings of the wounded, and were kept busy until the arrival of a physician some hours later. Men were sent both ways to stop trains.

A WRECKING TRAIN

was sent from Rat Portage. The injured were brought to Winnipeg and placed in the General Hospital, where at latest accounts they were progressing favorably, with the exception of Fetterley, who was very low and not expected to recover. On the train were many prominent Winnipegers, amongst the number being Hugh Sutherland, M. P., President of the H. B. railway; Mr. Robert Kerr, of the C. P. R., and others. Nearly every passenger lost all his baggage, as only a dozen trunks were saved. The heaviest loser in this respect is Mr. Hugh Sutherland, who lost a number of trunks with valuable contents.

The loss will not be so heavy as was at first reported. The loss of the baggage is the most serious one, which will have to be made good. The track was at once put in repair and traffic went on during Monday as usual. There were no Pacific Coast passengers on the train.

THE COLONIST HOTEL.

Extra preparations for the accommodation of guests during the fair have been made at the Colonist hotel, Beacon Hill Park. Here everything will be found to be first class. None but best of wines, liquors and cigars kept. A call is solicited. *

MILITARY HEADQUARTERS CHANGED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—A general order has been prepared at the War Department, changing the headquarters of the department of Dakota from Fort Snelling to St. Paul, Minn., first November, and headquarters of the division of the Pacific, from Presidio to San Francisco on the same date.

JURY BRIBERS DISCHARGED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—The jurors in the case of Micah Doan, alleged jury bribers, were discharged this morning being unable to agree on a verdict. They stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

As "Happy as a King" has a qualified meaning in these Democratic times. The Czar of Russia is an illustration in point. The other day he visited his loving subjects at Warsaw, and as a preliminary precaution one Nihilist was hanged and scores of others thrust into prison. Three railway trains formed the cortege and the Czar changed from one to the other without warning, so as to confuse any uninitiated person as to which contained the Emperor. The blinds were drawn over the windows; and soldiers were stationed along the track all ready to fire upon any one who might approach too near. How long can such a state of affairs last? Sooner or later the crash will come; and probably some Russian monarch who least deserves punishment will expiate as Louis XVI of France did, the shortcomings of his race.
